June 27, 1941

Honorable Lawrence J. Connery
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Connery:

It was a pleasure to meet you while I was in Washington. I want to thank you for your courtesies, which were particularly impressive because your attitude is clearly dictated only by a strong belief in truly democratic processes.

From what I observed, the people of the United States are fortunate to be represented by men who think as you do.

Sincerely,

M. Robert Rogers
